

Congressman Pence has introduced bipartisan legislation with Congressman Albert Wynn of Maryland that seeks to level the campaign finance field. Their bill will be considered this week in a House Administration Committee hearing. You can read more in today's Washington Times.